Rear Admiral V. D. Long
Chief of Staff
Naval War College
Newport, Rhode Island

Dear Sir:

I am looking forward to visiting the Naval War College on Wednesday, 7 October 1959. I plan to leave Washington, D. C. on the Federal arriving in Providence, Rhode Island at 7:10 a.m. As suggested, I will have breakfast at the Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel where I would appreciate being met.

My presentation entitled, "Communist China's Economy - Current and Future" will be classified CONFIDENTIAL. As requested, a short biographical sketch is enclosed.

I would appreciate having lunch with members of your staff and students at the Officers' Club before returning to Washington. My train will leave Providence at 3:56 p.m.

Sincerely,
